

Holiday Period Request Form

Request for a different 5 week exemption period from local content obligation and minimum service standards

If you would prefer to nominate a five-week exemption period from local content and minimum service standards that is different to the default period set out under the Broadcasting Services Act, please send this form to the ACMA (Attention: Broadcasting Standards Section) or by email to localcontentradio@acma.gov.au.

NOTE: The default exemption period starts:

- for the local content obligation – on the second Monday in December each year
- for the minimum service standards – on the second Sunday in December each year.

The requested 'holiday' period must be a CONTINUOUS five week period. You cannot request more than one 'holiday' period.

.....

Licence Area: _____ Licence Number: _____

Licensee contact details: _____

Reason for request: _____

Commencement of the local content obligation holiday period
Circle One:	Circle One:
1st MONDAY	January	July
2nd MONDAY	February	August
3rd MONDAY	March	September
4th MONDAY	April	October
	May	November
	June	December

Commencement of the minimum service standards (local news and information) holiday period
Circle One:	Circle One:
1st SUNDAY	January	July
2nd SUNDAY	February	August
3rd SUNDAY	March	September
4th SUNDAY	April	October
	May	November
	June	December