Dear [REDACTED],

Lottoland Australia Pty Ltd – Final Findings of investigation under the *Interactive Gambling Act 2001

On 31 January 2019, I advised you that the ACMA had commenced an investigation under section 21 of the Interactive Gambling Act 2001 (IGA) into the new services being offered by Lottoland Australia Pty Ltd. We also requested certain assistance in this matter. On 26 February 2019 you responded to the ACMA's request with information and documents relevant to this investigation.

The ACMA finalised its investigation and has made the following final findings:

- > the Lottoland jackpot betting services named Mon & Wed Jackpot, Tue Jackpot, Thu Jackpot, US Millions (previously US MegaMillions) and US Power are provided by Lottoland Australia Pty Ltd in contravention of subsection 15(2A) of the IGA, as these services are prohibited interactive gambling services with an Australian-customer link.
- > the provision of the Lottoland jackpot betting service named Daily Millions (previously Fri Jackpot) does not contravene the IGA.

The ACMA found that the prohibited services are services for the conduct of a game of chance.

Lottoland disputes the ACMA's findings of a contravention under subsection 15(2A) of the IGA and commenced proceedings in the Supreme Court of New South Wales Equity Division yesterday. Lottoland sought an expedited hearing this morning and the Court has now listed this matter for hearing on 26 July 2019. Please see the media statement published today on the ACMA's website at <https://acma.gov.au/theACMA/acma-finds-lottoland-in-breach-of-the-interactive-gambling-act-1>.
