

Note: the below is an extract of correspondence sent through the ACMA's customer relationship management system.

---

From: info@[REDACTED].com.au

To: DNCR-compliance@acma.gov.au

Date: 26/02/2018

Subject: RE: [SEC=UNCLASSIFIED] Compliance with the Do Not Call (DNCR) legislation
CRM:001195003047

Good Morning ACMA

As we have specified in our previous email we don't seem to understand why we would have received this warning. Going by the [REDACTED] it clearly shows that the complaint has no substance. This could have been done by a competitor or from somebody who is disgruntled in some way. We believe that this warning should not be on our records with ACMA, and that further matters be looked into in more detail.

Kind Regards

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Follow us on social...

Please consider the environment before printing this email

CAUTION - This message may contain privileged and confidential information intended only for the use of the addressee named above. If you are not the intended recipient of this message you are hereby notified that any use, dissemination, distribution or reproduction of this message is prohibited. If you have received this message in error, please notify the sender immediately.

[REDACTED] ® does not accept liability for the views expressed within or the consequences of any computer viruses that may be transmitted with this email. The contents are also subject to copyright. No part of it should be reproduced, adapted or transmitted without the written consent of the copyright owner [REDACTED] ®.