

COMMUNITY INTERVIEWS Wednesday Mornings 9 to Noon – Jan – Aug.

Michael Brownlee Friends of Botanical gardens Plant Fair Aug

Carol Raye CEO Katie Rose Cottage Hospice Aug

DEFORESTATION and Land Clearing for QLD beef production Aug (CRN interview)

Noosa Grapevine – fortnightly interview with local wine sommelier Martin Field Aug (25 interviews per year) (+17 times so far in 2019)

Local activist Emma Menzies reflects on her Training with Al Gore and her public meetings in the Sunshine Coast are Aug.

Anthony Dow local activist speaking on Environment and Sustainable development Aug

Emma Haslem chief Librarian speaking on our recent Library renovation and upgrades July

Mayor Tony Wellington speaking about Council's environmental policy July

Tom Johnson speaks on the challenges facing a new start in the local music recording initiative July

Michael Roach President Noosa Lions club speaking on their collection of Musical instruments for disadvantaged kids July

Desire' Gralton on Noosa cyclists and their traffic challenges July

Human nature and Plant extinction Paul Plant broadcaster on ABC and NOOSA FM June

Zero Emissions Noosa Pres. Vivien Griffin local activist and former Councillor June

Human Nature and plant extinctions and what we need to do locally (CRN interview)

Brett deChastel CEO Noosa Council spoke about Council governance and challenges ahead for Ratepayers June

Council's contribution to Helping homeless people in Noosa June 19th. Media Release from Cr.Frank Wilkie

Caroline Edginton Perigen Digital hub and Noosa Chamber of commerce June

Bob Birkhead with Rotarians Busking for local children's welfare June

Michael Taylor local biographical author May

Vicki Bradbury spoke on Noosa's Wallace House and the community activities that call Wallace House their home. May

Andrew Holt local author spoke of how to become successfully published. April

Tony Oxley on Rotary's contribution to the charitable Busking in Noosa event April

Jennifer Dean from Noosa Council speaking on Galleries, Marketing and Communications April

Bookfest by Noosa Rotary Daybreak – Richard Marsh April

Laoni Prior spoke of the work of the Noosa Quilters, their effort, their charity + their love of helping homeless people in the cold April

Alison Hadfield spoke about the Pomona Music Festival April

Tania Broadbent spoke of Rotary's assistance to Noosa's Katie Rose Cottage Hospice March

Major Warren Parkinson of the Salvation Army spoke of their work helping Noosa's less fortunate. March

Kini Naughton J.P. (Qual.), spoke of the volunteer work of our local Justices of the Peace March

Cr. Joe Jurisevic from Noosa Council spoke on Clean-up Australia and improvements to Noosa Waste recycling March

Senior Sergeant Officer in Charge Ben Carroll spoke on Policing in Noosa March

Janet Kake President of Noosa Chamber of Commerce spoke on building community businesses and working with Noosa Council March

Maia Raymond of Mathew Flinders Anglican school spoke of visiting Scotland for a student's conference on Climate Change March

Guy Leech speaking about Defibrillators and the lives they have saved in Noosa February

Morag Gamble spoke on Permaculture in Noosa February

Jane Harding Heritage Officer with Noosa Council spoke of her valuable work preserving Noosa's identity. February

Phil Moran G.M. of Landcare on what you need to know about buying a block of land February

Cr. Jess Glasgow updates us on the work he does in Council February

Chris Boden of Noosa's Digital hub spoke on future of work, surviving the A.I. apocalypse February

Home schooling in Noosa or anywhere Chilla Chenko and why she did it for her 4 kids and their success today January

Noosa Men's shed – meet the new executive and hear of their progress to date January

JOE SHLEGERIS – Zero Emissions Noosa's Electric mobility specialist January

Cr. Ingrid Jackson on Noosa Council's plans for the new year. January

NOTE: These are a quick compilation of interviewees from January 2019 until now, August 31st, 2019

Not included here are interviews with last minute interviewees such as our local SES President after local emergencies, local musicians, local youth support services from sporting clubs and Council, our local Federal member of parliament Lew O'Brien who appears throughout the year & last minute attendees from Noosa surf club, Cooroy Boxing academy for troubled local kids & the like. Oh, & local journalists after big stories.

Also not listed here I use CBAA & CRN interviews when they are relevant to Noosa listeners. In limited time that's the best I can do. Regards,

LEN Tyler – 7 years at NOOSA FM, previously in the Corporate sphere Management of I.C.T. companies, NEC & FUJITSU
Much earlier 3 years in Commercial radio (7HT) + stint at ABC (9PA) in Port Moresby PNG.