

Form 8 – Deed of financial security

For the purposes of sections 28, 34, 36, 39, and 41 of the Radiocommunications \(Spectrum Licence Allocation – 26 GHz Band\) Determination 2020 (allocation determination).

Notes on completion

Introduction

This deed of financial security form has been approved by the Australian Communications and Media Authority (ACMA) pursuant to paragraph 26(1)(m) of the allocation determination.

Sections 28, 34, 36, 39, and 41 of the allocation determination provide that an applicant must, before the eligibility deadline (or extended eligibility deadline, if there is one), secure its initial eligibility points by:

- > making an eligibility payment of an amount to the ACMA on behalf of the Commonwealth; or
- > giving the ACMA on behalf of the Commonwealth a deed of financial security, which has been completed in the approved form and executed, for an amount; or
- > making an eligibility payment of part of an amount and giving a deed of financial security for the remainder.

Applicants must use this deed of financial security form for the purposes of sections 28, 34, 36, 39, and 41 of the allocation determination where they propose to give the ACMA a deed of financial security for all or part of an amount in Part 3 of Form 7 – Eligibility nomination form. Section 36 contains further requirements in relation to the deed of financial security.

Who can be the Promisor

The Promisor who makes a deed of financial security must be one of the following:

- > an authorised deposit-taking institution within the meaning given by the Banking Act 1959
- > a person authorised to carry on business in Australia as an insurer under the Insurance Act 1973
- > a Lloyd's underwriter authorised to carry on insurance business under Part VII of the Insurance Act 1973.

Working out the amount secured by the deed of financial security

The information needed to calculate the amount secured by the deed of financial security (that is, the amount to be inserted at clause 1.1 of the deed) is included in the eligibility nomination form.

The amount required to be secured by the deed of financial security is calculated as follows:

- > 10% of the total value of the provisional start demands desired by the applicant before the pre-bidding phase of the primary stage and specified in the eligibility nomination form
- > less any eligibility payment made by the applicant to the ACMA on behalf of the Commonwealth under the allocation determination.

The amount inserted in clause 1.1 of the deed of financial security must be the same as the amount inserted by the applicant at Option 1 of Part 4 of the eligibility nomination form.

When to give the deed of financial security to the ACMA

If an applicant gives a deed of financial security to the ACMA for the purposes of section 28 of the allocation determination, they must do so before the eligibility deadline. If section 34 applies, the new applicant must give the deed of financial security to the ACMA before the eligibility deadline or, if the ACMA agrees to a later time, the agreed time. An applicant is taken to have withdrawn their application if the applicant fails to make an eligibility payment or give a deed of financial security before the eligibility deadline or the agreed time (if applicable). The eligibility deadline is included in the Auction guide.

If the ACMA varies the eligibility deadline under section 37 an applicant may update their deed of financial security for the purposes of paragraph 39(3)(b) no later than the extended eligibility deadline. If a new applicant gives a deed of financial security to the ACMA for the purposes of paragraph 41(2)(b), they must do so before the extended eligibility deadline.

How to give the deed of financial security

The deed of financial security must be given to the ACMA in accordance with the procedures for giving documents set out in section 7 of the allocation determination.

A summary of the procedures (including an email address and physical address for the lodgements) is provided at the beginning of the Auction forms booklet. The procedures are also summarised under the heading 'Giving documents to the ACMA' in the Auction guide. The procedures contain specific requirements where a document is lodged by email.

Additional procedures apply in relation to giving a deed of financial security. Where a deed of financial security is given to the ACMA by email before the eligibility deadline (or extended eligibility deadline, if there is one), the original document must be received by the ACMA no later than 3 working days after the eligibility deadline (or the extended eligibility deadline, if there is one); or, if the ACMA agrees to a later time, by the agreed time for the deed to be taken to have been given to the ACMA.

Who should execute and witness the deed of financial security?

A physical signature with an in-person witness is required for the completion of the deed of financial security. As noted above, if the deed of financial security is given by email, the original document must be received by the ACMA in accordance with the allocation determination.

A deed of financial security must be executed by:

- > an authorised deposit-taking institution within the meaning given by the Banking Act 1959
- > a person authorised to carry on business in Australia as an insurer under the Insurance Act 1973
- > a Lloyd's underwriter authorised to carry on insurance business under Part VII of the Insurance Act 1973.

An applicant is taken to have withdrawn its application if the ACMA is not satisfied that the person executing the deed of financial security is such a person.

Where the deed is executed by a body corporate, it must be executed by:

- > 2 directors
- > a director and a company secretary
- > if it is a proprietary company that has a sole director who is also the company secretary, that director; or
- > a person acting under a power of attorney for a body corporate.

If the deed is executed by a person acting under a power of attorney for a body corporate:

- > the applicant must give the ACMA a copy of the power of attorney with the deed; and
- > the execution of the deed must be witnessed by a person who is above the age of 18 and is not a party to the deed.
