Subject: ABC Advisory Council - Chair's role

Dear Nerida,

I didn't want to disturb your weekend with a phone call.

I wanted to let you know I've received confirmation from Ita about being appointed Chair of the ABC's Advisory Council. As you know, this Council has no statutory authority and advises the Board 'on matters relating to the Corporation's broadcasting programs'.

I recognise this is not ideal with my role at the ACMA. After speaking with you, I'm sure we can manage any perceived conflict. But please let me know if you have any concerns whatsoever. I value our relationship and your support and I don't in any way want to compromise this.

I understand this appointment will be announced on Monday.

Thanks Nerida and I hope you have a lovely lockdown-free weekend!

Warm regards,

Anita
