Dear Pauline, Kerstin and Sam,

For info

As Kelly has been discussing with Sam, this morning DIGI has announced the commencement of the disinformation code review and release a public discussion paper. They have also released the first annual report on code administration. The report includes consumer research on perceptions of misinformation as well as their best practice reporting guidelines.

We will be publishing the attached news article on our website on this morning welcoming the commencement of the review. Grateful if you could also pass onto the relevant new advisor in the office.

Please don't hesitate to contact me or Kelly if you have any questions.

Kind regards
Rochelle
