Dear Sir/Madam,

Contravention of the Australian Interactive Gambling Act 2001 – Cesario N.V.

The Australian Communications and Media Authority (the ACMA) is responsible for investigating and taking enforcement action for contraventions of the Australian Interactive Gambling Act 2001 (the IGA).

The ACMA has recently completed an investigation into the Rock'n Reels service available at <https://www.rocknreels.com>. The ACMA found that Cesario N.V. contravened subsections 15(2A) and 15AA(3) of the IGA by providing prohibited and unlicensed regulated interactive gambling services to Australian customers.

On 7 December 2022, the ACMA advised Cesario N.V. of the ACMA's preliminary contravention findings. The ACMA has received no response from any entity or individual involved in the provision of the Rock'n Reels service.

The ACMA finalised the investigation on 22 December 2022. The ACMA issued a Formal Warning to Cesario N.V. under section 64A of the IGA on 5 January 2023.

If Cesario N.V. continues to provide prohibited and unlicensed regulated interactive gambling services to persons physically located in Australia, the ACMA may take further action.

I have attached a copy of the Formal Warning issued to Cesario N.V. as well as the key provisions of the IGA.

We have brought this matter to your attention as we understand that there is an intention to expand the role of the Gaming Control Board Curaçao to the regulation of online gaming in Curaçao. We understand that findings of illegal activity may be relevant to your future consideration of the suitability of a licensee.

If you have any questions on the above, please contact me at [REDACTED].

Thank you for your engagement in this process.

Yours sincerely,

Manager
Interactive Gambling Team
