Dear Sir/Madam

Contravention of the Australian Interactive Gambling Act 2001 – Speqta Media N.V.

The Australian Communications and Media Authority (the ACMA) is responsible for investigating and taking enforcement action for contraventions of the Australian Interactive Gambling Act 2001 (the IGA).

The ACMA has recently completed an investigation into the Pokie Island service made available at www.pokieisland.com. The ACMA found that Speqta Media N.V. contravened:

- > subsection 15(2A) of the IGA by providing prohibited interactive gambling services to Australian customers

On 3 May 2022, the ACMA advised Speqta Media N.V. of the ACMA's preliminary contravention findings. No response was received.

The ACMA finalised the investigation on 8 June 2022. The ACMA issued a formal warning to Speqta Media N.V. under section 64A of the IGA on 15 June 2022.

If Speqta Media N.V. continues to provide prohibited interactive gambling services to persons physically located in Australia or to publish, or to authorise or cause the publication of, designated interactive gambling service advertisements in Australia for such services, the ACMA may take further action.

I have attached a copy of the formal warning issued to Speqta Media N.V..

We have brought this matter to your attention as we understand that there is an intention to expand the role of the Gaming Control Board Curaçao to the regulation of online gaming in Curaçao. We understand that findings of illegal activity may be relevant to your future consideration of the suitability of a licensee.

If you have any questions on the above, please contact [REDACTED], Manager of the Interactive Gambling Team at [REDACTED]

Thank you for your engagement in this process.

Yours sincerely,
