Dear Mr Coffi

Contravention of the Australian Interactive Gambling Act 2001 – [Provider Name]

The Australian Communications and Media Authority (the ACMA) is responsible for investigating and taking enforcement action for contraventions of the Australian Interactive Gambling Act 2001 (the IGA).

The ACMA has recently completed an investigation into services made available at <https://www.malibuclubcasino.com>. The ACMA found that Audeo N.V. (and Merus (UK) Ltd) contravened subsection 15(2A) of the IGA by providing a prohibited interactive gambling service to Australian customers.

On 17 August 2020, the ACMA advised Audeo N.V. (and Merus (UK) Ltd) of the ACMA's preliminary contravention findings. No response was received.

The ACMA finalised the investigation on 8 September 2020. The ACMA issued a Formal Warning to Audeo N.V. (and Merus (UK) Ltd) under section 64A of the IGA on 14 and 15 September 2020 respectively.

If Audeo N.V. (and Merus (UK) Ltd) continue to provide prohibited interactive gambling services to persons physically located in Australia, the ACMA may take further action.

I have attached a copy of the Formal Warnings issued to Audeo N.V. (and Merus (UK) Ltd) as well as the key provisions of the IGA.

We have brought this matter to your attention as we understand that there is an intention to expand the role of the Gaming Control Board Curaçao to the regulation of online gaming in Curaçao. We understand that findings of illegal activity may be relevant to your future consideration of the suitability of a licensee.

If you have any questions on the above, please contact [REDACTED] Manager of the Interactive Gambling Team at [REDACTED]

Thank you for your engagement in this process.

Yours sincerely
