

FORMAL WARNING

under section 205XA of the Broadcasting Services Act 1992

To: Natixis (Corporation number 542 044 524)

Attention: [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

I, Jenny Allen, an authorised infringement notice officer of the Australian Communications and Media Authority (ACMA) appointed under section 205ZE of the Broadcasting Services Act 1992 (the BSA), having reasonable grounds to believe that Natixis (Corporation number 542 044 524) has contravened subsection 74G(1) of the BSA, being a designated infringement notice provision;

HEREBY gives Natixis a formal warning under section 205XA of the BSA for contraventions of subsection 74G(1) of the BSA, and warns Natixis that I, or another authorised infringement notice officer, may be entitled to give Natixis an infringement notice relating to the contraventions, or similar contraventions.

Obligations under subsection 74G(1) of the BSA

Subsection 74G(1) of the BSA states that:

If a person who was a foreign stakeholder in an Australian media company has ceased to be a foreign stakeholder in the company, the person must, within 30 days after the cessation, notify the ACMA in writing of:

- (a) the cessation; and
- (b) the circumstances that resulted in the cessation

Subsection 74G(5) of the BSA provides that a person is not required to notify information under subsection 74G(1) of the BSA if the information might tend to incriminate the person or expose the person to a penalty.

Subsection 74G(3) provides that a person commits a separate contravention in respect of each day during which the contravention continues.

Subsection 74G(4) of the BSA provides that subsection 74G(1) of the BSA is a designated infringement notice provision.

Section 205XA of the BSA provides that an authorised infringement notice officer may issue a formal warning if the officer has reasonable grounds to believe that a person has contravened a designated infringement notice provision.

Details of the contravention

I have satisfied myself, as an authorised infringement notice officer of the ACMA, that Natixis ceased to be a foreign stakeholder in the following Australian media companies on 20 June 2023:

and did not notify the ACMA in writing of the matters specified in subsection 74G(1) of the BSA within 30 days after that time. Therefore, as Natixis did not notify the ACMA until 4 August 2023, I have reasonable grounds to believe that it contravened subsection 74G(1) of the BSA from 21 July 2023 to 3 August 2023.

Natixis has claimed that the failure to notify the ACMA in accordance with subsection 74G(1) of the BSA was inadvertent, that Natixis has, in good faith, taken reasonable steps to comply with the notification requirements and that all relevant notifications were subsequently made.

Dated this 22nd day of September 2023.

Jenny Allen

Authorised infringement notice officer under section 205ZE of the BSA
