The ACMA is satisfied that Golden IT contravened clause 9.4.1(a) of the TCP Code which requires that a supplier provide a Compliance Attestation to Communications Compliance, which has been endorsed by the chief executive officer or a senior manager of the supplier, annually. The ACMA is satisfied that Golden IT had not submitted an annual Compliance Attestation as at 1 April 2015.

Reconsideration of a decision

Under subsection 558(1) of the Act, Golden IT may apply to the ACMA for the ACMA to reconsider the decision to direct Golden IT to comply with the TCP Code. The application must be made within 28 days after Golden IT is informed of the decision (subsection 558(3) of the Act).

If Golden IT is dissatisfied with the ACMA's decision on reconsideration, it may:

- (a) subject to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975 (the AAT Act), apply to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal for review of the reconsideration decision, and
