

Application for a 2-letter amateur radio call sign

Under the Radiocommunications (Amateur Stations) Class Licence 2023

Information for applicants

2-letter call signs can only be assigned to amateur operators with advanced qualifications.

Your application will be processed in accordance with the Radiocommunications \(Amateur Stations\) Class Licence 2023 and the ACMA's call sign policy.

Information in this form will be used by the ACMA to administer call signs, and facilitate call sign applications and assignments.

The ACMA publishes an online call sign register that lists all call signs and qualification levels associated with assigned call signs. The call sign register does not contain any other information about a licence holder.

Refer to www.acma.gov.au/amateur-radio for full information.

Supporting documents

2-letter call signs can only be assigned to amateur operators with advanced qualifications.

Please include either of the following supporting documents:

- a copy of the letter or email from the ACMA sent in January or February 2024, confirming your amateur operator qualification level, or
- a copy of your most recently awarded amateur radio qualification.

If you are applying for a call sign to operate outside of your state or territory of residence, outline why you are applying for it in the box below.

If you are applying on behalf of a club, please include evidence that the club is considered to be a separate legal entity.

Further information about the evidence required is in the ACMA's call sign policy on the ACMA website.

Fees

Current application fees for call signs are listed on the ACMA website.

We will send you an invoice after we receive your application – do not send payment now – and will process your application once the invoice is paid.
