Hi [REDACTED],

At the risk of stating the obvious, when conducting the searches we discussed earlier, we should try to confine our search to ACMA records. The OeSC can conduct the search for e-Safety records.

Cheers

Hi [REDACTED]

The request calls for documents which relate to their X (aka Twitter) handle or name, which is either mentioned and/or linked to in the request. Some have elected to supply their name as well (ie in the sign off), and some (as per the attached) have asked that we correspond with their email rather than their X account.

Currently up to 136, but it has slowed down a little throughout the morning.

Cheers

Hi [REDACTED],

Two questions:

1. This request (presumably like its pro forma counterparts) calls for documents which mention the applicant's name. But where is their name?
2. Is it still 129?

Cheers

Hi [REDACTED]

We have received, at current count, 129 new FOI requests which all follow the pro forma application below. While it is definitely more an eSafety problem, the applications as written have also been clear enough to make it our problem.

I was thinking we might need some sort of strategy about how we respond, and was wondering whether we need to approach the Chair with this?

Happy to discuss.

Cheers,

[REDACTED]

Dear FOI Officer,

I write to make Freedom of Information Act 1982 (Cth) request for the following information from both the eSafety Commissioner and ACMA. My 'X' (formerly known as twitter) handle is @FSUofAustralia.

I ask for copies of all documentation containing my 'X' handle, or my name. I also ask for all records of eSafety Commissioner staff reviewing this documentation such as browser logs. In the interests of transparency, this should identify the name and role of the officer who was involved (if recorded).

I am content to constrain this request for documents produced on or after the 1st of January 2023.

It is important to me that you respond to my request in public on X. Pursuant to Section 15(2)(c) of the Act, I instruct that notices be sent by tweet to my handle at @FSUofAustralia on 'X' (formerly known as Twitter). Your notice must be sent as a public post from either @esafetyoffice, @tweetinjules, or @acmadotgov. For completeness, a link to my 'X' profile is here.

Yours sincerely,

Free Speech Union of Australia
