Hi Anneke and Ros, Please see below a email to [REDACTED] seeking further information about his assessor application. In terms of the assessor guidelines, he seems to have breached 2.7 Accredited assessors must act in a professional and respectful manner and comply with the law at all times. I haven't specified anything in this response but can add a bit if you want me to more specific.

Gabrielle Lowe 3:25 PM:

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your application to become an accredited assessor with ACMA.

On your application you indicate that the AMC has withdrawn your accreditation within the last five years.

We are reaching out to you to see what your understating is of why your accreditation was withdrawn by the AMC.

I have attached the ACMA Accredited Assessor Guidelines to this email. We require all assessors to read and agree to abide by these guidelines to become accredited.

Considering the circumstances of the AMC withdrawing your accreditation, are you able to identify any steps you intend to take to prevent any breaches of the guidelines occurring in the future?

We look forward to a response at your convenience.

Kind regards
