Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your email enquiry following up the status of your assessor application, submitted 20 February 2024.

Your query comes as a surprise, since we sent correspondence to you at the email address you provided in your application in relation to your assessor application on 8 April 2024.

Please find attached the document 'ASR-1183.pdf' that provides a summary of your online application.

Can you please confirm if the email address [REDACTED] that you provided in your application belongs to you?

If your preference is to receive communication to the email address from this email address ([REDACTED]), please let us know and we will update your assessor application contact details.

If the email address [REDACTED] does not belong to you, please let us know if you would like us to contact the email address and request that they delete the 8 April 2024 correspondence.

Please find attached the 8 April 2024 correspondence 'ACMA accredited assessor application - [REDACTED] [SEC=OFFICIAL]' relating to your application.

Kind regards

I appreciate that you are exceedingly busy butt I have still had no response to my application to become an assessor again?

Kind regards
