Draft letter to AMC - request for details of removed assessors.docx

Hi Dean,

Thanks to you and your team for your assistance in transitioning amateur radio arrangements to us for February 2024 commencement.

As you know, we're planning to take the relevant legislative instruments to our Authority on 7 December 2023 seeking they agree to them.

As flagged previously, the draft Radiocommunications (Amateur Radio Examinations) Rules 2023 outlined that, when considering whether a person should be given accreditation, the ACMA must consider 'if the person was not on the List of [AMC] Authorised Assessors on the commencement day – whether the person had been removed from that List before the commencement day'.

So, I plan to write to you (I'll send via email), seeking details about the assessors the AMC has removed from its list of assessors and a short explanation of why. I've attached a draft, which I'd be grateful for your review and any comments on – in particular if any of the details we're requesting are unclear or not achievable on your end.

Grateful if you can provide any comments by 10 November.

Kind regards,
Anneke
