

Application for transfer of an amateur radio call sign

Under the Radiocommunications (Amateur Stations) Class Licence 2023

Information for applicants

Please complete this form and supply supporting documents (where applicable) if you would like to apply to transfer your call sign to a different amateur operator.

Provide the details of the call sign you want to be transferred and the name and contact details of the operator you want to transfer your call sign to. Please ensure that you provide the correct information – incorrect information may delay our consideration of your application.

You will need to pay a fee to have your application considered. If the amateur operator who you would like to transfer your call sign to does not hold adequate qualifications to be transferred this call sign, the application may not be approved.

Your application will be processed in accordance with the Radiocommunications \(Amateur Stations\) Class Licence 2023 and the ACMA call sign policy.

Refer to www.acma.gov.au/amateur-radio for full information.

Privacy information

The personal information being collected in this form is to enable the ACMA to decide whether it will transfer your call sign to another amateur operator consistent with the ACMA call sign policy. The information will also be used by the ACMA to administer call signs and facilitate call sign applications and assignments.

The ACMA publishes a call sign register on its website that lists all call signs and, if the call sign is allocated, the respective qualification level associated with the allocated call sign. The call sign register does not contain any other information about a licence holder.

The ACMA will not use any of the personal information you provide in this form for any other purpose, nor will we disclose it, unless we have your consent or we are otherwise permitted to do so under the Privacy Act 1988.

Further information about the Privacy Act and the ACMA's Privacy Policy is on our website. The Privacy Policy contains details about how you may access personal information about you that is held by the ACMA, and seek the correction of such information. It also explains how you may complain about a breach of the Privacy Act and how we will deal with such a complaint.
