Thanks Alana.

[REDACTED] – I will get you to start pulling this together. I can give you a call to discuss.

Hi [REDACTED]

Thanks again to you and team for assistance with questions yesterday for estimates.

Following the estimates hearing, Autumn is keen for us to start a conversation with Content Committee re: next potential steps on the Kyle & Jackie O show.

To assist with that discussion, I would be grateful for a summary of the consideration of Kyle & Jackie O matters by the ACMA in recent times – and in particular an analysis/summary of the Kyle & Jackie O complaints we have assessed since 1 July 2023 to 31 October 2024 (which I understand to be 12) – I think it could be useful to do this in a table format along the lines of:

- Type of complaint (as I know a number were anonymous)
- Issues raised in broadcast
- Relevant Code provision
- Reasons for not opening an investigation

If we have time to go back further – i.e. back to 2009 given the work we've been doing for the Guardian media request (and I know quite a large number related to the Virgin Mary broadcast) – that would be amazing, but let me know what you think you can do.

It would be good to note as well the 3 (or 4?) investigations we have conducted leading to a breach.

It would also be useful to have some kind of explainer of the other 'contacts' (i.e. enquiries or other complaints) we didn't assess – even if not 'assessable' complaints, they would still be relevant info in terms of identifying systemic issues.

We should also provide Content Committee with the additional detail provided by the CRA on their annual report.

Many thanks

Alana
